

Rugby League Norge har gleden av å gratulere Martin Beddis med rollen som landslagstrener for Rugby League Rullestol!

21. Desember 2020

Martin Beddis har over 10 års erfaring med utvikling av rullestol-rugby og alle dens varianter. Han har erfaring som trener for bl.a. Liverpool Lions og Runcorn Ravens, samt som spiller for Warrington Wolves Wheelchair RL og player coach for Englands landslag i 7s rullestol.

Vi ser frem til et produktivt samarbeid for å utvikle et bedre idrettstilbud hvor alle er inkludert.

Rugby League Norway would like to congratulate Martin Beddis on his new role as head coach for Rugby League Norway's national wheelchair team.

Martin Beddis has experience as a coach for several clubs including Liverpool Lions and Runcorn Ravens. He also has experience as a player and vice-captain for Warrington Wolves RL wheelchair team, as well as having been the player-coach for England National Wheelchair 7s team, who are currently ranked among the best in the world.

We look forward to a very productive cooperation to develop rugby league wheelchair, a fantastic sport that is inclusive to everyone.

Martin Beddis' words upon accepting the role of head coach:

"It's an honour to take charge of the Norwegian Wheelchair team and also to develop the sport of Wheelchair Rugby League in Norway. I am looking forward to the challenges this role brings to get the team ready to compete with the world's best teams at the 2021 Wheelchair Rugby League World Cup."
